The Scottish Government has a new programme supporting working parents on low incomes—the Parental Employment Support Fund.

Do you tick one of these boxes?

- Lone parent
- Disabled parent/parent with disabled children
- Parent with 3+ children
- Parent from an ethnic minority
- Parent with youngest child under 1 years old
- Parent aged under 25 years old

You could be eligible for help and support.

We will help you:

- identify, and work towards, an employment goal
- learn new skills to enhance your employment prospects
- understand how to maximise your income and your benefits
- search for jobs and prepare for interviews
- link with employers looking for staff with your skills and experience
- increase your income from employment
